Philadelphia, Pa., October 13.—Manager Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia American League club, stated to-day that he did not think there was a possible chance for Centrefielder Oldring, who was injured in last Tuestay's game with the All Stars, to play in the world's series with the Chicago Nationals mext week. Oldring twisted the ligaments in his knee in trying to dodge a fly ball, which he had lost in the sun. He is under the care of specialists, who don't believe that it is possible for Oldring to get into the games with Chicago.

Manager Mack said that the loss of Oldring from the game will be a hard blow to himself and his players. Oldring mas one of the men Mack was counting upon heavily because of his ability as a fielder, batsman and baserunner, Mack says that Oldring can scarcely be replaced. Mack would not tell what his outfield plans are with Oldring on the heavilta lar and runner, Mack says that Oldring can scarcely be replaced. Mack would not tell what his outfield plans are with Oldring on the hospital list, and there is a chance that McInnis, who has been hitting the ball hard during the past two weeks, will be selected for centre fielder against Chicago. Mc-Innis played centre field to-day, and handled himself very well, although he is an infielder. It was discovered to-day that a few of the tickets for the games here next Monday and Tuesday had fallen into the hands of scalners. It is said the scalpers are holding on to the tickets with the expectation of getting tremendous prices next Sunday and Monday.
